

as that would.

I look at my fellow
congregants.

Does it touch them,
or is there a gap
between how they express themselves
and what truly they feel?
And if there is,