

Why do we imagine
that we are young
when we are old,
and the shaft
of light
that should be bright
is cold?

Written in the dark
during a concert at the Eastman Theatre
April 20 2001